Back to the Basics!

My students need basic supplies such as new markers, oil pastels, and watercolors. These are the basic essentials my students need to succeed in art.

My Students

My students are wonderful kids, grades k-5. They are eager and willing to learn. As a whole, our school's mission is to push our students to be the best they could possibly be- and then some!

Our school is title 1, so more than half of our students are on free or reduced lunch.

They come from all sorts of different backgrounds and stories that most of us might not even be able to understand or imagine. Thus, it is my personal goal to help them succeed in any way possible.

My Project

My students need basic supplies for this upcoming school year. Unfortunately, due to cuts, we are on a VERY limited budget, and we need your help! The supplies listed are just the basic essentials needed for a successful art class.

Sharpies, markers, oil pastels, and watercolors we use on a daily basis.

These materials are used so often, we need to replace the old because they are dried out, or completely used up. With vibrant, new markers, my students will feel more confident about their work.

Other supplies such as model magic, and rulers will help further along my students in their journey in art. Using these materials, I will be able to incorporate more math into my lessons by using the rulers to create geometric figures, and then model magic to help students model shapes in three dimension.

Donations to this project are now being matched, thanks to support from An Anonymous Arts Funder. Every child should have access to essential art materials and experiences. An education in the arts makes children well-rounded, engaged, and active citizens of the world. This project has been supported in an effort to ensure that all students gain from the many benefits that arts education provides.
